Danube-Networkers. Tastes of Danube. Bread Connects

This is the motto of the Danube-Networkers' new project started in February 2017. By now, more than 100 civic organisations from the fields of education, culture, social affairs and environment and universities and schools from 12 countries in the Danube area take part in this education network along the Danube, which was founded in 2008. With joint projects, they want to contribute to good neighbourly cooperation in the Danube area, in peaceful Europe united in its diversity. "Bread connects" – in this case bread stands for common staple food and is also a symbol for community, sharing and assuming responsibility for others. The project consists of several sets of actions and runs until January 2019.

Bread Connects. Give a sign of friendship along the Danube!

From 7th to 16th October 2017 the Danube-Networkers are carrying out a Danube Bread Baking Week with this motto. During this week, many actions concerning bread baking and bread sharing will take place in all Danube countries. People of all ages, ethnic origins and social backgrounds are invited to participate and through their actions to make concrete contributions to fostering of peaceful and solidary community both in the Danube Region and in Europe. All participating groups will send a photo related to their actions to info@ileu.net, until the 31st October. It will be inserted in the website bread-connects.tastes-of-danube.eu. By this way, a large transnational virtual ribbon of friendship will be created!
