

DanubeSparrows

An invitation to join the Danube-Networkers baking action with the slogan: Bread sharing is caring in October/November 2019!

The Danube-project "Bread connects is ending at the end of November after two and a half wonderful years of communication and exchange between people of all ages, ethnics and life conditions in the Danube region. Have a look on our website <http://bread-connects.tastes-of-danube.eu>. It makes visible: Bread is a basic food throughout Europe. Moreover, bread is in all cultures and religions a symbol for community, sharing and responsibility for others.

On this background, the Danube-Networkers from Ulm invite you to participate in the baking action October 2019 "Bread sharing is caring". Sharing homemade "Danube Sparrows" for people you don't know means giving them a sign for peaceful coexistence. It should express our readiness for caring for each other and for demonstrating our efforts to achieve better understanding between people on local as well as the whole of the Danubian and European level.

Take part!

2. Share the baked Sparrows with people or groups you don't know well or have not been in contact before, for example unknown neighbors, pupils, older people in old people's homes, people with special needs, migrants and others places.... Give them a sign of friendship with the "Danube Sparrows", meet them and speak about the Danube-Networkers aims and actions.
3. Tell us shortly about the baking action and let us know with whom you have "shared bread".
